

EDUCATION INFORMATION IN KAYIN STATE

Findings and Recommendations from the Workshop

- Reform the education system with input from the community to support more 'value-added' education.
- The Government should recognize community schools and the formal education systems that are run by the Karen Education Department.
- Create a decentralized education policy.
- Update the curriculum so that it addresses the practical needs of the students.
- •The Government should regulate teacher salaries and tuition fees for private schools.
- Need research and assessments of tutoring advantages and disadvantages.
- The Government should make parents and the community aware of the importance of education through platforms such as TV programs, radio channels, and other media outlets.
- •Entrance for higher education should not be decided by scores, but by the students' interests.
- Review the gender ratio by sector (specifically education, military, nursing, and small-scale business) and find ways to better support equality.
